HAVE REMOVED TO

H. E. Corner Main and Jefferson Streets.

IN announcing our new location, as above, we beg leave to return sincere thanks for past patronage, and hope to have the pleasure of meeting all our old friends, and many new, in the central and prominent position to which we have removed. The

Real Estate Agency

In all branches, will, as heretofore, be a leading feature of our business, and, by long experience and personal acquaintance with the owners of Real Estate, both in and out of the city, we hope to make ourselves a general resort for the exchange of title in city or country property.

Our Rental Department

Continues under the efficient management of H. L. GUION, Esq., who will attend promptly to Collecting Rent, Paying Taxes, etc.

Public Sales of Merchandise

Will also be a specialty of our business in which the central and conspicuous situation of our Salesroom offers superior advantages to consignees, to whom we will make the most liberal advances and terms on goods to be sold by auction.

IMPOLICY OF OPPRESSION.

The fact is, that the entire policy of the English Government in its conduct of Irish affairs has been wrong and unjust from the beginning. And thus, inevitably, it has got into entanglements, from which release is exceedingly difficult. Liberals and Tories are alike puzzled. The Irish are treated as a conquered nation. Concessions now and then have been made, but they have afforded no real relief. The lowering of the property qualification for suffrage, which may now be considered as decided upon, does not reach the root of the difficulty. The proposed disestablishment and disendowment of the Irish Church—what good will it do? It will not appease the Fenians, who probably never devoted a thought to the difference between the two Churches as affecting their interests. Something more radical than all these measures is needed to atone for the oppressions of the past. A complete reconstruction is called for, and nothing else will prove satisfactory. "Our country is decaying under English rule," say the Irishmen; "our only relief is in expatriation. We must either have a repeal of the Union, or an absolute and radical reform. Larger franchise will not relieve us. Disestablish and disendow the Protestant Establishment—but that will do us no good. Give us the conditions of prosperity, or give us independence."—N. Y. Times.

One would almost suppose that the Times intends a satire on the legislation of Congress in regard to the Southern States: for it would be an incredible hypocrisy in a Radical to censure the misgovernment of Ireland by England, while looking with complacency on that of the South by the North, which has drawn its precedents of tyranny from the magazine filled by the English Parliament in its legislation for Ireland, and by Russia legislating for Poland.

CLERKS TO BE DISCHARGED.

The number of clerks now and to be discharged from the different departments on account of the failure of Congress to appropriate money for the payment of their salaries, is estimated at 1000, one-third of whom are females.—N. Y. Times.

We cannot but sympathize with the hundreds upon hundreds of Government clerks who are now being dismissed in Washington because of the limitation put by Congress upon the appropriations for the conduct of the several Departments. It was very hard on them, though it is not so very hard upon the tax-payers of the country. It must be pleasant to them to know, however, that there are a great many productive pursuits, trades and businesses throughout the land which are in want of efficient and industrious employees. They can get $5 a day, for instance, at bricklaying, and nearly as much at other respectable occupations. Let them set to work at once.—Same number of same.

Not a word of censure of the Radical members of Congress who raised their own salary from $3000 to $5000 per annum: but heartless scoffs at unfortunate clerks, the only truly useful persons in the Departments, and advise to them to resort to bricklaying and other respectable occupations. And yet the writer of the paragraph knows very well what extremities of misery in many, many helpless, hopeless families have been caused by the cruel and heartless action of Congress. "Hundreds on hundreds of clerks thrown out of employment," means at least half that number of families deprived of the very means of living, and pitifully appealing in mute agony to heaven against the cruelty of soulless legislators.

TENNESSEE.

—The Trenton Gazette mentions as a fact worthy of notice, that the Israelitish portion of that town are all Seymour and Blair men.

—One of the wealthy merchants of Nashville received bankrupt notices from his debtors, during last week, amounting to the big sum of $208,000.

—The editor of the Paris Intelligencer has seen a letter from the Comptroller of the State in reply to an inquiry as to whether colored persons are liable to pay a poll tax for 1867. The Comptroller says they are not, and all monies collected on this account should be returned if called for.

—The Nashville Banner of the 11th, says: Gov. Brownlow has not yet indicated who is to be Judge Milligan's successor. O. P. Temple, of Knoxville, is hinted at, but the place is doubtless being kept for Maynard, in case that worthy should be beaten by Judge Houck in the contest for the Congressional nomination.

—The Paris Intelligencer of the 8th, says of the crop prospect in Henry county: One more rain will make the corn in this county, and so flattering at present is the prospect for an abundant crop that we have heard it estimated that corn can be had here in plenty, at gathering time, at one dollar per barrel. The cotton and tobacco also promise well. We confidently expect to see a plethora of money in this section next fall.

—We learn from the Nashville Banner of Tuesday, that next Wednesday there will be a meeting of the bondholders and creditors of the Wills Valley Railroad at Chattanooga. The President of the road and three or four of the Boston capitalists who desire to purchase the bonds of the road, will be in attendance at the meeting. A few of the parties holding the bonds insist that they must receive a dollar for dollar on them, or they will not sell them.

—A very deplorable affair took place last Saturday in Tullahoma. A correspondent of the Nashville Gazette, writing from there, says: Two young and in every respect worthy men, Capt. Hy. Holt and Jas. Aydelott had a misunderstanding about some trivial affair. Pistols were used, and the former was instantly killed. He leaves a young, accomplished wife and a babe, besides his gray-headed parents, to mourn his untimely end. Jas. Aydelott, who is an unmarried man, was unhurt in the encounter. The whole community is in gloom, because both parties were raised here, have been friends, and their families are on the most intimate terms, and are highly respected by all. The funeral of deceased took place yesterday evening with Masonic ceremonies.

—The Lebanon Herald and Register is informed that Blackburn and Hathaway are organizing a militia company in DeKalb county. They tell the negroes if they don't join, the rebels will put them into bondage again, and a few of the deluded creatures believe them, and had their names enrolled.

—The Nashville Gazette of Sunday has the following: Trustworthy citizens inform us that bands of negroes are in regular camp a few miles South of Nashville. And on Friday morning a lot of commissary stores from some quarter was sent to them in the Penitentiary wagon. This matter should be looked into by the investigating committee set on foot a few days ago.

BY TELEGRAPH.

Noon Dispatches.

Death of Thad. Stevens.

WASHINGTON, August 12.—Hon. Thaddeus Stevens died at precisely twelve o'clock, at his residence in this city, on Capitol Hill. Simon Stevens, Thaddeus Stevens, Jr., a nephew, and his housekeeper, Mrs. Smith, were at his bedside; also, Sister Loretta and Sister Genevve, of the Providence Hospital, J. Scott Patterson, of the Interior Department, and the servants of his household. In breathing his last, he passed away quietly and calmly, without a struggle, and as if falling asleep.

RICHMOND, August 12.—The negro who was shot last night at a Conservative meeting is mortally wounded. He has made an ante mortem statement that he was not engaged in stoning the meeting. He was taken to the Freedmen's Hospital.

Twenty-two arrests were made yesterday of persons alleged to have been in the affray, and matters will be brought before a court to-morrow.

NEW YORK, August 12.—The British brig Eutice was seized in Philadelphia by the Collector of the port for loading for the Island of Sombrero, which is declared by the Secretary of the Treasury to be a port appertaining to the United States. The penalty is a forfeiture of the vessel and cargo.

The ship Emerald Isle from Liverpool, arrived last night, having on board 801 passengers, all of whom are Mormon emigrants. There were thirty-seven deaths and three births during the passage.

PARIS, August 12.—Adah Isaacs Menken, the American actress, died here today.

ANOTHER OUTRAGE.

A Black Fiend Attempts to Violate the Person of a Respectable White Lady.

From the Nashville Banner of the 11th.]

Bribed into committing acts of lawlessness and crime, by a confident expectation of release from the Penitentiary, if convicted, it must have been noticed that in various localities of late, negroes have been guilty of outrages more or less aggravated. The last we have to relate occurred in Springfield, Robertson county, on Friday night, and was no less infamous than the attempt of a black scoundrel to outrage the person of a respectable white woman. It appears that the wretch dragged his victim into an out-house or barn and would have accomplished his purpose if the screams of the frightened woman had not attracted a number of white men to the spot. They had the satisfaction of arresting the villain, who is now confined in the Springfield jail. Last accounts from there are to the effect that the prisoner is apprehensive of being forcibly taken out and lynched, but as we learn, there is no disposition on the of the citizens to anticipate the course of the law.

ALABAMA.

—Gen. Lawler is announced to address the colored men at Mardisville on the 15th.

—The Henry county Register of the last says cotton is it jaring every day and bids fair to do nothing.

—Peter Williams was committed at Demopolis last week to be examined for killing John Lomax, by shooting him in the head. Both freedmen.

—The Mobile Register of Monday says: The rainy season seems to have at last broken, the weather yesterday being bright and clear, and not uncomfortably hot, a north wind prevailing throughout the day.

From the same paper we clip the following: "A young man hailing from Mobile, calling himself by turns Owen, Turner and Inncrarity, was arrested the other day at Gainesville Junction with a horse and buggy he stole in Marion." His real name is Inncrarity, and he belongs to one of the best and oldest families of the State. This is not the first sorrow he has brought upon his aged father, who is a practising physician of Mobile.

—The Gainesville News of the 31 says: Since our last issue we have had more or less rain every day, which has had a damaging effect upon the fodder and cotton crops. Corn, potatoes, hay and garden stuff, however, are not injured, but rather benefitted by the weather, and if we can escape an overflow of the river, of which there is great danger, an abundance of food will be raised in this locality, both for man and beast.

MISSISSIPPI.

—The corn crop in Choctaw county is said to be unsurpassed.

—The Meridian Gazette comes to us now as a daily, having made its first appearance as such on the 6th inst.

—Nearly one-sixth of the whole taxable property in the State is advertised for sale under executions.

—The Aberdeen Examiner announces that Bishop Paine is slowly recovering from his prostrating illness.

—At a barbecue at Loohatan a few days ago, James Mosby, an estimable young man of Aberdeen, was seriously stabbed by a Mr. James Tatum.

—A son of Mr. Rollison, of Hinds county, a short time since, was deeply bitten in the leg by a sprouting adder. Whisky was freely administered and the wound bathed with camphor, and he recovered.

—The Brandon Republican says: We are fearful that the continued wet weather has injured the cotton crop very materially. It has rained at some point in this county every day during the month of July, and whilst a few isolated farms have not had enough, most of them have had entirely too much for the cotton crop. All the late corn is splendid, but most of the early planting was materially injured by the June drouth. Sweet potatoes, peas, goobers, etc., are very promising.

GENERAL NEWS.

—Mike McCoole, the bruiser, was married at St. Louis on Saturday night to Miss Mollie Norton, a daughter of Daniel Norton, a rich contractor of that city.

—Railroad communication is now open from St. Louis to Council Bluffs, Iowa.

—A Block, of the firm of Block & Co., bankers, corner Third and Pine streets, St. Louis, was arrested in that city on Saturday. It appears that Block, a day or two ago, drew from the National Loan Bank nine thousand dollars. Shortly after it was discovered Block had overdrawn his account over seven thousand dollars, and was called upon to make it good. He replied that the money was spent and he could not do it. An attachment was then issued, the bank taken possession of by the Sheriff, and only about three hundred dollars found. Block's residence was then visited to serve an attachment on his furniture, and underneath and attached to the bottom of a parlor chair was found a package containing between $7000 and $8000, which was recognized as part of the money drawn from the bank. Block was immediately arrested, and is now in confinement.

STATE FEMALE COLLEGE,

THE Fall Session of this Institution will commence on MONDAY, the 14th of September next, with a full and superior Faculty (as usual) in all the departments. In addition to the Music Department, taught as heretofore, we have been made for a full course of lessons in PHYSICAL CULTURE according to the system of Dio Lewis. This places the State Female College, in this respect, in advance of any other school at the South, and parents, both at home and abroad, will soon come to see its beneficial effects.

The City Railroad Cars now run out to the College, and under city patronage perfectly practicable. Parents and guardians in the city will find on inquiry that they can enjoy the benefits of this superior school and make a saving—even the year—for a added—of 25 to 50 per cent. on tuition bills. A CRIME TO VOTE.

From the Chicago Times.]

Congress, on Friday, the 24th day of July, deliberately enacted, on the motion of Mr. Lawrence, (a loyal member from Ohio), that "it shall be a penal offense, punishable with fine and imprisonment, for any person in the Southern States to vote, or to act as an officer of election, in the ensuing Presidential election." The bill, to which this provision was adopted as an amendment, passed the House by yeas 112, nays 27,—"a strict party vote." Congress has thus made it,—Congress, of course, can do anything,—in the States of Virginia, Mississippi and Texas, a crime to vote!

This infamous device of tyranny is intended to enable the Washington usurpation to carry out the purpose of the so-called "Electoral College bill," by declaring Grant to be the President in spite of the constitutional requirement of a majority of the electoral votes.

That high-handed measure is a plain violation of the Constitution, and is therefore null and void. Judge Caton, lately Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Illinois, and one of the ablest jurists in the country, says it is the most direct and infernal attempt at usurpation of power that has ever been made in America. Judge Chase, Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of the United States, says it is a "foreshadowing of foul play." It means revolution. It means another rebellion. It means a seizure of the Government by a desperate oligarchy of bond-barons, and a subversion of its popular form to a form better suited to the purposes of a moneyed minority. It means a defiance of popular rights, and the assertion of moneyed interests at the point of the sword. "Blair's letter," says Judge Chase, "is simply up to the exigencies of the times. He sees nothing revolutionary in it. On the contrary, he is inclined to think that it aims to stop the revolution which the admission of carpet-bag Senators is undoubtedly working in our form of government."

Tyranny has often made innocent acts criminal, when it has been inspired by fear or suspicion: for it is of the nature of fear and cowardice to be cruel. The Jacobins know that the People of Mississippi, Virginia and Texas will vote, if they have the opportunity, for Seymour and Blair; and they fear that if they should so vote, although not reconstructed, and their votes, if counted, would elect those candidates and defeat Grant and Colfax, the Democratic party would resort to arms rather than permit the latter to be installed in office. Therefore it was proposed to make it a crime for men in those States to vote.

The bill did not pass the Senate; but its passage in the House completely fastens upon the Radical party the infamy of the proposition to make it a crime in a freeman to go to persons selected for the purpose by the citizens, and declare that if he were allowed to vote, he would vote for Seymour and Blair, or Grant and Colfax. He is to be punished for endeavoring to make known how he would vote, if he could. Was a more monstrous proposition ever before made in a legislative assembly? Was a more tyrannical rescript or edict ever issued by a Roman Emperor? A tyrant might find it prudent so to prevent the expression of opinion of part of his subjects. It certainly was never before attempted by a Republic.

The proposition shows the alarm and apprehension of defeat of the most desperate faction that ever possessed the powers of government in a commonwealth. It is a confession of weakness and of anticipation of defeat. A party must be in deadly fear and sorely pressed, to venture upon so desperate and shameless a measure: and if the people of the North sustain such a party in November, they will confess themselves not fit to be free.

Faithless and false in falsifying the pledge given to the people of Alabama, that the Constitution to be made for that State should not be deemed adopted, unless it received the votes of a majority of all the registered voters; seeing with merciless indifference the torture resorted to in Georgia to extort testimony from white men and negroes; exhibiting a contemptible poltroonery in emasculating the bill for the protection of naturalized citizens introduced into the Senate by Conness, of California; Radicalism has at last proposed to make it a crime to vote. Its record of infamy is complete.

A CARD FROM COL. J. B. BINGHAM.

A Chapter Relating to the Adoption of the Franchise Act—The Election of Seymour and Blair the Shortest Road to Peace.

Gen. Albert Pike, Editor Appeal:

My Dear Sir: I thank you for the correction, in the columns of the APPEAL of to-day, that I am not one of the Radical leaders. I am not only not a Radical leader, but I am not a Radical at all. It is true, that in January, 1865, in conjunction with Andrew Johnson, then Military Governor, and other leading men then in the State, I participated in the Convention which submitted amendments to the Constitution, and inaugurated measures whereby civil government was re-established in Tennessee. Then there were but two classes—Union men and Secessionists—and our sole object in the movement, as I understood it, was to relieve our people of the onerous exactions and tyrannical sway of the Military Commanders, who ruled over us, with as sublime a contempt for the rights and privileges of citizens, as of all law, human and divine. I was honored with a place on the Business Committee, to which all propositions had to be referred for report before action by the Convention. There was much diversity of opinion, even among the most sagacious members, as to the elective franchise. The war was still being waged, and its existence was of uncertain duration. Then, as now, some few were for wholesale disfranchisement, while others were for the most liberal policy possible under the circumstances. Finally, after nearly two days deliberation on that subject, the Business Committee submitted an article on suffrage, which excluded no one from the privilege of franchise except the Governor and members of the Legislature of 1861, the judges who had voluntarily retired from their positions, the members of Congress who had voluntarily left their seats, and those whom President Lincoln's proclamation had excluded from the benefits of Amnesty. This Suffrage Act was regarded as a triumph by the liberal and conservative members of the Convention. Then there were no advocates of negro suffrage except Senator Fowler, James Hood, of the Chattanooga Union, and possibly Hon. Horace Maynard. This article on suffrage formed a part of the first report made by the Business Committee to the Convention. It was opposed by the delegates from East Tennessee in convention, because in re-enacting the proviso to the 83d section, Article IV, of the Constitution, which provides that "no person shall be disqualified from voting, in any election, on account of color, who is now by the laws of this State a competent witness in a court of justice against a white man," it was thought to have a possible squinting at negro suffrage—to which, in all possible phases, not only East Tennessee, but nearly the entire Convention, were bitterly opposed. So strong was the pressure against this feature of the Suffrage Article—a feature, however, which still remained in the Constitution, because unaffected by any act of the Convention—that there was a subsequent meeting of the Business Committee to modify their original report. By a vote of the majority, that report was modified by leaving out the Article on Suffrage altogether; and, in lieu of it, at the instance of Mr. Maynard, the ninth section of the Schedule was inserted, giving power to the first Legislature assembling under the amended Constitution, to determine "the qualifications and the limitation of the elective franchise;" and, as thus modified, the report was submitted to the Convention and adopted. It was contended, and not without some show of reason, that the war was then in progress, but the situation might be changed before the Legislature consummated their work, and then they could afford to be even more liberal than had been proposed in the Convention. It was with this understanding that I gave my assent that the franchise question should be remitted to the Legislature at all.

The first Legislature under the amended Constitution assembled at Nashville on the 3d day of April, 1865, and on the 21st day of April—just eighteen days thereafter—Gen. Lee and his army surrendered, hostilities ended, and peace was inaugurated. And yet the Tennessee Legislature, with a full knowledge of all the facts and circumstances under which the franchise question was remitted to them, and in utter disregard of the wishes of an overwhelming majority of the Union men of Tennessee, as clearly expressed at the Convention of the January previous, not only did not evince more liberality than had been proposed by the Convention pending a state of war, but months after hostilities had ceased—on the 5th day of June, 1865—actually perverted and prostituted the power which had been conferred upon them, and passed "An act to limit the Franchise Act," which excludes from the privilege of suffrage a very large portion of the people of Tennessee. As soon as the act was made public, through the columns of the Bulletin, of which I was then editor, I denounced it as grossly proscriptive and flagrantly unconstitutional; and, from that day to this, I have not ceased to make war upon it as one of the most iniquitous and unjust measures that ever disgraced the statute book of any State.

This Franchise Act is the one distinctive badge of Radicalism in Tennessee. Until its adoption by the Legislature, there was no Radical party in the State. It was devised not in the spirit of liberal statesmanship or fraternal concord, but entirely in the interest of party. It was to keep the State Government and the members of the Legislature in power, and not to promote peace and harmony among the people of the State, that it was originally enacted, and it is now insisted upon, as was recently affirmed by Hon. Wm. Stokes, in his speech before the present Legislature, in order to keep the Radicals of Tennessee "on top." When it was found that the original franchise act would not keep the party in the ascendant, then it was that "negro suffrage" was resorted to; and even that is now contumaciously persisted in while an overflowing majority of our white citizens, embracing many of the largest tax-payers, are made aliens in their own land—a land which many of them would die to save. No such example of selfish partisanship, and of outrage on the principles of free republican government can be found outside of the limits of Tennessee; and it is to be hoped that the Republican party of the Union, which is solemnly committed to universal suffrage, will frown indignantly upon the miserable faction in this State, who assume affiliation with the party only to violate its platform and ignore its professed principles.

You will thus perceive that while I was a Union man, and co-operated with other Union men in devising means for the inauguration of civil government in Tennessee, I am in no manner responsible for the illiberal and unconstitutional law by which my fellow-citizens have been so ruthlessly proscribed; but that, on the contrary, I have, from the first inception of their iniquitous scheme to the present moment, opposed, with whatever vigor I could command, their mischievous machinations, as well against the constitution, as of the peace and welfare of the people of Tennessee.

It is known that I have been a fast friend of Andrew Johnson, and a consistent supporter of his administration; and, as such, desired his nomination, above all others, as the candidate of the Conservative party of the nation at the ensuing Presidential election. It seemed to me to be eminently proper to make that man our leader who antagonized, in his own person, all the issues in controversy in the present contest. But, another gentleman having been chosen, in every way worthy to lead the lovers of constitutional liberty to victory, I am unwilling, by supineness or inaction, to occupy a doubtful position. Heretofore our political contests have related to mere questions of policy in the administration of the Government; but in the contest now forced upon the country, the issue is neither more nor less than whether we shall have a government at all—a government whose cementing bond is the Constitution as our fathers made it, and regulated by laws passed in consonance therewith. In such a contest I shall not be an idle or indifferent spectator. Believing that the shortest, if not the only road to permanent peace and prosperity lies in the election of Seymour and Blair, I shall range myself among their supporters, with a determination that however others may labor with more ability and success, to be excelled by none in persistent and zealous labors in attaining so glorious a consummation. To this end I propose, during the pending canvass, to address the Union men of Tennessee, and all others, from the hustings as often as I may have opportunity.

Very respectfully,
J. B. BINGHAM.

NASHVILLE.

NASHVILLE, August 12.—A meeting of the stockholders of the Nashville and Chattanooga Railroad convened to-day. The day was spent in consideration of the question whether certain stock owned in Georgia and South Carolina should be represented in the election of Directors. Vote not yet closed.

The Radical State Convention met to-day. Horace Maynard was chosen President, and Vice Presidents and Secretaries were appointed.

A letter from Brownlow was read, and a committee appointed to draft resolutions concerning Thad Stevens' death.

The Convention, to nominate a Radical candidate for Congress, also met to-day, two delegations appearing from Davidson; both were failed out. The vote of other counties was then taken, with the following result: Mercer, 14; Trimble, 14. No candidate. Prosser, 8; Harrison, 2.

Without taking another ballot, the Convention adjourned sine die.

This leaves both candidates (S. C. Mercer and Col. Prosser) in the field, and no chance of a settlement except at the polls.

WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, August 12.—The following is Attorney-General Evart's opinion on the case of the Commissioner of Internal Revenue:

Hon. Hugh McCulloch, Secretary of Treasury:

Sir: I have given to the subject submitted to my consideration by your letter of the 7th inst., in relation to the present condition of the affairs of the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, the most careful attention. The case presents itself as follows: Mr. E. A. Rollins, holding the civil office of Commissioner of Internal Revenue, to which he had been appointed by the President, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, addressed to the President, under date of June, 1868, the following letter:

"Sir: In pursuance to a purpose known to my friends for several months, I hereby tender you the resignation of my office, to take effect upon the qualification of my successor, nominated by yourself and confirmed by the Senate.

"I am, Sir, very respectfully,
"E. A. ROLLINS,
"Com. Internal Revenue."

Upon the fifth day of August the President put upon the back of this letter the following indorsement: "The resignation of E. A. Rollins as Commissioner of Internal Revenue is this day accepted."

Upon these facts you desire my answer to two questions, viz.: First—Is the office of Commissioner of Internal Revenue vacant? Second—If vacant, since when, and can a successor be appointed during a recess of the Senate?

The office is, as you suggest, a very important one, its intelligent, efficient and faithful administration is a matter of the greatest interest to the public revenue and the public credit, and it is justly a subject of solicitude with the President that his full duty, under the Constitution and the laws, in respect to this office and its administration shall be fulfilled. The questions which you address me come to be of practical and substantial interest in the Executive administration of the Government only by force of the recent legislation of Congress, known as the "Tenure-of-Office" bill—that has impressed upon a class of officers, including the one under consideration, a tenure-of-office at the will of the office holder, which cannot be terminated by the President, except on appointment and confirmation by the Senate, and induction to office of his successor. . . . The precise effect of this legislation is the first point for consideration. The purpose of the Tenure-of Office bill was to change the doctrine and practice of the Government, by which removal from office, at discretion, had been established as a proper and necessary attendant of the Executive duty and responsibility under the consideration to maintain the efficiency and fidelity of the public service in fulfilling the manifold and incessant obligations of the administration and in the execution of the laws. This purpose, which might have been united to a requirement of the concurrence of the Senate with the Executive in effecting a removal from office, and yet left the capacity of removal as a separate and indispensable act, open to the exigencies of the public service, has been carried by the law to the extent of precluding a termination of the officer's hold upon office by the united will of the President and Senate, save and except by appointment, confirmation and qualification of a successor. This tenure held upon office is put distinctly by this act as a matter of the officer's right and title. The consequence of this is, there is no other possible mode of vacating the office thus protected against the will of the officer during the session of the Senate, however flagitious and injurious his personal or official conduct may be, except through the conditional process of impeachment. During recess of the Senate, the remedial proceeding of temporary suspension by the Executive, followed by accusation to the Senate and judgment thereon, is provided, and may result in the removal of the officer without the necessity of simultaneous appointment and confirmation of his successor.

Mr. Rollins, at the date of his letter to the President, was entitled to hold his office until a successor had been appointed by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, and should have been qualified; and the only interruption of this, his personal right, possible under the law, was the general process of impeachment and judgment thereon, or the special process of suspension, accusation and judgment thereon. It rested then, under the operation of this law, solely with Mr. Rollins to determine whether he would voluntarily put an end to his hold upon the office; and the question whether the office is now vacant, in my opinion, turns entirely upon a just construction of the effect of Mr. Rollins' letter. This letter is manifestly framed with intent to convey the impression that the writer does place himself in respect to his official and public service, and to the power and duty of the President in connection therewith, upon a different basis from that which the law leaves him. But upon duly weighing all parts of this official communication, I cannot hesitate to pronounce it entirely without any legal operation whatever upon Mr. Rollins' tenure-of-office. I am obliged to regard the present tender of his resignation an actual relinquishment only upon and after the event named and prescribed by the writer, namely: The confirmation by the Senate of his successor. It will be perceived that the event which is to ripen this tender of resignation into relinquishment is precisely the action of the Executive and Senate, and of the successor of Mr. Rollins, which, by the "Tenure-of-office act," deprives him of his office, and consequently of any power or will in regard to its relinquishment. I cannot, therefore, give to this letter any official or legal force whatever, in placing at the discretion of the President any power over the office in question, which he did not possess without the letter.

Concerning the effect of the President's indorsement, I have to say that in my opinion I have sufficiently shown that the letter possessed no legal or official operation upon the office or President's authority, over to which the indorsement could attach itself. And I must consider that the office of Commissioner of Internal Revenue and Mr. Rollins' hold upon it remains the same as if the letter had never been written, or the President's indorsement put thereon, and the office is vacant. This conclusion renders unnecessary a reply to your second question. I have disposed of this matter wholly with the premises of the existing legislation governing the question, and without any discussion of the larger topics touching the conformity or repugnance of this legislation with the Constitution. No such discussion would be appropriate to the inquiries to which you have called my attention.

Very respectfully, etc.
WM. M. EVARTS, Attorney-General.

To-day the President received the members of the Tailors' Union Convention, and was introduced to the members by Hon. Tom Florence. He made them a short speech, but indulged in no remarks of a political character. The interview lasted three-quarters of an hour.

FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, August 10, 1868.

Special dispatch to the Louisville Journal.]

THE RADICALS COMMENCE TO HOWL.

The glorious news of the overwhelming majority of Stevenson in the late Kentucky election has raised the most piteous moans from the Radical anxious-seat. You could knock any of the disconsolate ones down with a feather. They refuse to be comforted and take it out in howling.

MORE SCARED THAN HURT.

The recent nitro glycerine episode is magnified into something ominous. If the Radicals could but make it out a "Rebel outrage," it would be invaluable to them for party and electioneering purposes, but that is out of the question.

THE NEW YORK HERALD TURNS A SOMERSAULT.

The Herald man, who is always on the look-out to see which way the popular current is setting, says there is a terrible counter-revolution going on, and comes out very Democratic, and thinks, evidently, that Grant's chances are past praying for.

SEWARD THE "LITTLE BELL" MAN.

Prime Minister W. H. Seward comes back from his lark on Wednesday, and will be closeted all day preparing at the Foreign Office his final instructions to Gen. Rosecrans, the Minister to Mexico, who will probably be the bearer of an important communication to the Mexican-Indian, Juarez.

THE WHITE HOUSE.

This dreary looking establishment looks particularly dull and uninteresting now. Dullness reigns supreme within its walls, and the monotony is depressing. Among the visitors to-day were Gen. Rousseau and Green Clay Smith.

ROLLINS REDIVIVUS.

Rollins, the champion sticker, is coming back here, and is disposed to show fight. He claims to be Commissioner of Internal Revenue still; and says his head isn't off by a long shot. Another row with Congress and an ad interim affair is expected by those who are anxious to see the fun commence.

THE PRESIDENT

remains serene and affable, and will dispose of Rollins a la Stanton, perhaps.

Lynch Law in Massachusetts.

A Chesterfield man named Hiram Pittsinger, who is said to have kept a light woman as a kitchen servant, and between them to have abused his wife so that she was compelled to leave him last month, was visited Tuesday night of last week by about thirty men in disguise, and some women also, and ordered to surrender. He resisted, and knocked one of the assailants down, but was soon overpowered. Pittsinger and his housemaid were then marched to the house of his brother, near which the unfortunate pair were stripped of their clothing, tarred and feathered, and ridden on a rail about half a mile. Pledges were extorted from Pittsinger not to divulge the names of those engaged in the riotous proceedings, to remove his woman from town within forty-eight hours, and to make confession of his guilt to his wife; if not done, a worse visitation to follow. —Springfield Republican, Aug. 5.

If Pittsinger had come South and set up, a la carpetbagger, with some dusky Aspasia, and an outraged community had acted as the above crowd of "God and morality"-ites have done, what a howl would have been set up about "rebel outrages," "Ku-Kluxes," "Southern lawlessness," etc.

OLIVER OPTIC has published the thirty-second life of Gen Grant, under the title of "Our Standard Bearer." The title is apt to prove an "optical" illusion.

SOMEBODY out West has intensified Grant's misuse—"Grim and silent he stood like an iron statue." We have seen pumps and horse posts just the same. Probably the difference between them is far less than would at first be imagined.

—Potatoes weighing four pounds each, raised in fifteen weeks from the day of planting, without irrigation, were offered last month in the San Diego market.

—Years ago the migrating Mormons scattered a few sunflower seeds on the shore of the Missouri river, and they have grown and increased for hundreds of miles, until the great growth is one of the chief peculiarities of the Missouri bottom.

—Telegraphic advices from St. Domingo and Hayti report that Baez had been defeated at Saybo by the Cabral revolutionists. Salnave still held his own in Port au Prince, and is said to be gaining ground in the interior.

In former times it was a practice with the merchants to give five gallons good liquor for the first bale new cotton. By way of keeping up something like the old custom, we propose to pay a premium of fifty dollars in silver for the first bale new cotton sent us from Tennessee, to weigh not less than four pounds. aul3 1m J. NEW ARRANGEMENTS.

DURING THE PRESENT LOW STAGE OF water in the Arkansas river, all the boats on the Memphis end of the route are withdrawn, and the elegant side-wheel Steamer

NATONA.....James Lee, Master

Will take the place of the through boats, leaving Memphis as heretofore MONDAYS AND THURSDAYS, at 6 p.m.; connecting at Napoleon TUESDAYS AND FRIDAYS with the light draught and comfortable passenger steamer

AMERICAN.....W. T. Berry, Master

For Pine Bluff.

Freight and passengers will be transferred without detention or extra expense, the "NATONA" giving through tickets to passengers to Pine Bluff and all interme diate points only, but will ship through Bills Lading for freight to all points on Arkansas river as high up as Fort Smith.

The new and very light-draught steamers

VAN BUREN.....J. W. Williams, Master
FORT SMITH.....James Bowlin, Master

Will ply between Pine Bluff and Napoleon, connecting at the latter place with a fine first-class Flatboat in charge of Capt. Jeff Gadwin, by which freights shipped on this line are forwarded without detention, and delivered at destination in good order, the flats being well provided with tarpaulins to protect the goods from the weather.

Persons wishing to ship by this line will continue to mark their goods "via Arkansas river," and ship to "Memphis and Arkansas River U. S. Mail Packet Company," at Memphis, or to John D. Adams, at Memphis.

All freights signed for through on this line will, as heretofore, continue to receive the attention of James T. Bourne & Co., No. 12 Jefferson street.

JOHN D. ADAMS, Superintendent.
VINSON & DONAHUE, Agents for Natona.
DAVE HUKILL, Passenger Agent.

On resumption of navigation, the GLENARA, CELESTE, CALDWELL and OZARK will resume their places in the Memphis and Fort Smith line, by which the merchants and planters on the entire Arkansas river will have direct communication with Memphis, and can ship there by rail and steamboat to all points in the United States.

jy24 JOHN D. ADAMS, Superintendent.

TO CONTRACTORS.

OFFICE OF THE BOARD OF LEVEE COMMISSIONERS FOR THE COUNTIES OF BOLIVAR, WASHINGTON AND ISSAQUENA.
GREENVILLE, MISS., August 5, 1868.

SEALED PROPOSALS will be received until Saturday, the 29th day of August, for the construction of the following Levees.

IN BOLIVAR COUNTY.

Kirk's Levee, about 40,000 cubic yards.
Pride's Point Levee, about 40,000 cubic yards.
From Vicksburg to Vermilion, about 180,000 cubic yards.
Lake Bolivar Levee, 180,000 cubic yards.

WASHINGTON COUNTY.

Levee from Tarpley's to Mrs. Campbell's, about 150,000 cubic yards.
Greenville Levee, about 20,000 cubic yards.
Kranaw's Levee, about 20,000 cubic yards.

ISSAQUENA COUNTY.

Camack's Levee, about 350,000 cubic yards.
Christmas Levee, about 150,000 cubic yards.

Separate proposals may be made for each of these Levees, or for the whole number in the District. Propositions must state the price per cubic yard for which the work will be contracted.

For the information of capitalists, I would state that the whole amount of unfinished work of the Board is about 1,500,000, and that the tax on the present cotton crop will more than discharge every form of obligation.

Any information in regard to the Levees, or matters pertaining to their construction, can be obtained by application at the office.
S. G. FRENCH, President.

TENTH WARD CLUB No. 2—Meets this (Thursday) evening at 7½ o'clock, at the Dunn place, head of Vance street. A punctual attendance is desirable. Good speakers will address the meeting.

MEMPHIS ASSOCIATION COURSE.—There will be a meeting of the Directors at 4 o'clock p.m to-day, at my office, corner of Main and Jefferson streets. A full attendance is respectfully requested.
JNO. D. NOVAN, President M. A. C.

THE WHEAT-FARMER CONCERT.—We learn that extensive preparations are on foot to make the concert of these two splendid musicians a success on Friday evening. The best musical talent of the city has been engaged, and we have no doubt that our music-loving public will be treated to a rare feast of sweet sounds.

MESSRS. SMITH & LEECH, No. 342 Second street, below Union, whose card we publish in another column, have the most extensive rectifying establishment in the Southwest. They are prepared to furnish rectified liquors in any wholesale quantities to the trade. Dealers are respectfully invited to call upon them before going elsewhere.

POLICE ITEMS.

In the first district there were fourteen arrests up to midnight, seven of which were for keeping open saloons without a license.

—There were twelve arrests up to eight o'clock in the second district. Seventy-five dollars in fines were assessed, and twenty-five collected.

PEARCE, LAMBERT & CO.—We call the attention of the readers of the APPEAL to the card of the above firm in another column. Mr. Pearce was formerly cotton salesman for Pearce, Park & Co., and has had a great deal of experience in the cotton and commission business. This firm should do a good business, for they are deserving of it.

ATTEMPTED BURGLARY.—Mr. S. Weiler, who lives at 217 Poplar street, was awakened on Tuesday night by having a pane of glass from one of the windows in his house shivered to pieces on the floor. He arose and went into the room whence the sound came, and saw a man about getting into the window. He called for assistance several times, and the burglar leisurely left, but no policeman came in answer to his call. Entrance had been gained by breaking slats out of the blinds, and cutting out a pane of glass with a diamond.

DEMOCRATIC MASS MEETING AT GRAND JUNCTION.—There is to be a grand rally and mass meeting of the Democracy at Grand Junction to-morrow, (Friday, the 14th inst.) Everybody is invited to attend. Capt. W. J. Ross, General Superintendent of the Memphis and Charleston Railroad, has made ample arrangements for the accommodation of all who may wish to attend from this city or along the line of the road. A special train leaves here at 6:30 a.m. and arrives at Grand Junction at 10 o'clock a.m. Half fare will be charged to persons buying the round ticket. There is to be a grand ball at the Stonewall House after the "days doings," and every arrangement has been made to make it a perfect success.

FIFTH WARD COLORED DEMOCRATIC CLUB.—The colored Conservatives of the Fifth Ward, to the number of some twenty-five, met together on Tuesday afternoon, on Hill street, between Union and Gayoso streets, and organized a Democratic Club. They adopted the constitution and by-laws of the first Colored Democratic Club that was formed, and elected Sam Croghan, President; F. H. Nichols, Vice President; Thomas Chafers, Treasurer; and Robt. B. Thompson, Recording Secretary. A Finance Committee of four were appointed, to consist of Alexander Pell, Lawrence Johnson, Thomas Epps and Robert Smith. The meeting after organizing, adjourned to meet this evening at the Provine Block at 8 o'clock.

GRAND MASS MEETING—Of colored men at Poplar street Market Square, Saturday evening, 8 o'clock, August 15, 1868. At the last meeting of the Eighth Ward Democratic Club, a resolution was made and adopted that an invitation should be extended to the colored men of the ward, to hold a grand mass meeting, and organize an Eighth Ward Colored Democratic Club; also that the use of our hall adjoining Taylor & Co.'s drug store, be extended gratuitously for a weekly meeting. It is hoped that the colored men of our ward will all be in attendance, as there will be both white and colored Conservative speakers to address them. We desire that all colored men who can will be present, as the views of those who are fully acquainted with the political affairs of the country will be made known. Come one, come all, and promptly, at 8 p.m.
J. W. SMITHER,
Secretary Eighth Ward Democratic Club.

IMPORTANT MEETING.

The Colored Men of Memphis in Council---Eloquent Addresses by Jack Jones, Marengo Johnson and Burley Mitchell. Colored Men of Memphis.

BOLIVAR, TENN., August 11, 1868.

Editors Memphis Appeal:

Our little village was visited on yesterday by three colored men of no little talent and distinction, with whose character you are no doubt more familiar than the writer, as they are now and have been for many years, citizens of Memphis. There names are respectively, Jack Jones, Marengo Johnson and Burley Mitchell.

It was announced on the streets that it was the desire of these parties to hold a colored Conservative meeting. In a few minutes part of a brass band was obtained, around which an immense crowd of colored men soon gathered, and were eager to hear what their friends from the city had to say. The most respectable citizens of the community, and especially those who have ever been true to correct principles and their country, did everything in their power to make the meeting one of success.

Jack Jones was the first orator introduced, and without the least exaggeration, made an elaborate and exceedingly appropriate speech, in which he proved conclusively and satisfactorily to his colored friends that the carpet-baggers composing the Radical party in this county were a consummate set of thieves, and that their only hope, as a race, for education and general prosperity depended upon the friendship of their former masters. He entreated them to be patient and content themselves with their present station among men; and he cautioned them especially against Radical association, lest they might thereby bring upon themselves the contempt of all decent people. After Mr. Jones completed his remarks, Marengo Johnson came forward and perfectly astonished the people, both black and white, with his display of eloquence and perfect familiarity with the diabolical deeds and infamy of the Radical party. His speech was chiefly confined to the question of taxation, and it had a most powerful effect; it being a question affecting directly the colored man's interest. After having made an hour's speech and a most convincing argument, he took his seat amidst a tremendous applause.

Burley Mitchell being unwell did not speak on the occasion, but will address the colored people at Grand Junction today.

Many other speeches were made at night, and a colored Conservative club will be organized here on Monday next. Thirty of the most intelligent and influential colored men came forward without hesitation and subscribed their names as members of the same.

Old Hardeman is perfectly safe, the revolution now going on and last August election is convincing proof of this fact.
UP AND DOING.

A BREEZY TIME.

The dull monotony and tedium of life in the classic free-tinks of Greenlaw's Opera House and the J. P. courts was most agreeably enlivened by several pleasant and edifying little skirmishes yesterday. One was a regular "battle royal," and for a while was quite a free thing, conducted in the good old style of "knock down and drag out." There were five engaged in it, all of them parties to the late charge of cow-stealing, and, at their request, until the said charge is definitely settled, we will not mention names. The grand feature of the day's entertainment was a "war of races," in which Ben Eggleston, a Democratic colored voter, everlastingly chawed up one Mr. Lemmon, a Radical ex-Constable. We did not learn the origin of the quarrel, but suppose benzine was at the bottom of it. In the course of some remarks, in which (using a figure of speech more remarkable for its force than its elegance) Lemmon reflected on the maternal ancestor of the Democratic colored voter, he took occasion to touch upon Ben's politics in such a manner that Ben retorted by touching upon Lemmon's optics, with his "bunch of fives," accompanying the dig with an invitation to Lemmon to pitch in and get squeezed. Lemmon, nothing loth, (as Ben was small) pitched in, and did get most elegantly squoze. During the squeezing process, Ben got Lemmon's thumb in his mouth and "chawed" it off, or nearly so. Lemmon, getting more than he bargained for, shouted "nuff," and the combatants were parted—Lemmon being carried off to get his wounds dressed, and leaving Ben master of the situation. As he was toted off (Ben spitting out the pieces of "chawed" thumb) called out to Lemmon to come back and "git his frum," adding, sarcastically, "he did not want it—never liked hog meat no how."

When we arrived on the scene, Ben was marching up and down the battle-field, slapping his breast, and ejaculating "Whew—a little nigger, an' a ole nigger, an' a ugly ole nigger at dat!—but I kin jis' lick de hin' sights offum all sich stock as dat!"—Alas! Ben's pæans of victory were destined to be short-lived! In the midst of the song of triumph, he was basely and ignominiously snatched, grabbed, gobbled up and carried before 'Squire Griffith, on charge, entered by Lemmon, of assault and battery. But here, too, Ben was victorious. Several gentlemen of the legal persuasion, and Democratic faith, having seen and admired Ben's prowess in the good cause, came forward to defend him, and with so much pathos and eloquence did they urge and plead his cause that the 'Squire not only discharged him, but fined Lemmon two dollars.

Later in the day, a big Radical darkey hearing how Ben had used one of his white brethren made for him, and walloped Ben. Both of them were picked up and toted off to the calaboose, where they will probably have to settle with Col. Beaumont this morning.

Y. M. I. D. CLUB.

Torch Light Procession.

The Young Men's Independent Democratic Club held its regular weekly meeting in Stillman Hall last night. It being a business meeting there was very little speaking. Gen. Rucker made a very sensible, business talk, and said some things which struck the nail on the head exactly. He warned the infamous scoundrels in our midst who are striving to excite and stir up the evil passions of the ignorant masses and array the negroes and whites in deadly hostility to each other, inaugurating a carnival of blood and horror—he warned them that a watch was upon them and their houses. Not an action or a word escapes a sleepless eye—one set to preserve the peace if possible—but if it is broken, to avenge every drop of blood that is spilled upon their worthless carcasses. They had better heed the warning.

After adjournment, the club moved in a body to the corner of Second and Adams, where they met the Young Men's Independent Seymour Club, who had assembled there to meet them, and the two clubs, with a band of music and with torches, formed a procession and paraded the streets. With their beautiful banners, waving flags and lurid torches, the line made a grand display. At present writing they are passing the Bulletin office, with the big drum playing a dead march.

Editors Memphis Appeal:

I trespass upon the columns of your valued journal for the purpose of making a suggestion which I trust will be acted on. There are in this city (from my own personal knowledge) quite a number of aliens who have declared their intention of becoming citizens of the United States, and who are now, by their residence of five years in this country, legally entitled to a certificate of citizenship and all the rights appertaining therefrom. We hold meetings nightly in our city to aid and strengthen the cause of Democracy, dear to every lover of constitutional liberty. Our speakers, in earnest and eloquent appeals that stimulate the sluggish, awaken the lethargic and animate the brave, expatiate upon the direful effects of Radical success in the coming election, and in strains of eloquence that enlighten our minds with the logic of truth and electrify our hearts, urge the importance and vital necessity of the triumphant election of our chosen champions, Seymour and Blair. This is well enough, and receives, as it deserves, the encouragement and support of all foes of Radical tyranny and misrule. But there are other ways to swell the seething waves of Democracy which the ides of November next are to sweep Radicalism and its infamous cohorts to the shores of oblivion, viz.: Let every good Democrat or Conservative constitute himself as a committee of one and make it his object to find out the antecedents of his neighbors and their present political status. If an alien, and a devotee at the shrine of Democratic principles, and qualified for the rights of citizenship, let him see that his alien friend is invested with these rights. There may be those of our citizens who have no time to attend to this. I therefore suggest, that the name of every alien be reported to the Secretary of the club in the ward he resides, or to the Central Democratic Club of Shelby county, and a committee be appointed by them whose duty it shall be to see that those entitled to the prerogatives of freemen be invested with the immunities and privileges which citizenship confers.

I deem it also advisable to establish a fund for the purpose of paying for certificates issued to poor laboring men, unable to pay for the same out of their scant earnings, and who are solely deterred on that account. I am sure every conservative citizen will give his mite towards the furtherance of this laudable object.

We cannot afford to lose one vote in the coming election, for one vote lost to us may be the means of giving two to our political opponents, and besides, the defeat of Radicalism in this State, and perhaps in the United States, may hinge and depend upon one vote.

Bear in mind, Democrats, you who have the welfare of your country at heart, that one vote saved Andrew Johnson from impeachment, and thereby the country from additional nameless outrages and horrors—the sure fruits of Radical mislegislation; and one vote in the coming contest may save our dismantled ship of State, freighted with carpet-baggers and beset by scalawag pirates and Radical breakers, and which threaten to engulph her.

"Eternal vigilance is the price of liberty."
A VIGILANT DEMOCRAT.

MEETING OF THE SECOND WARD DEMOCRATIC CLUB.—At a meeting of the Second Ward Democratic Club, held at their hall last Tuesday night, the meeting was called to order by the President, Wm. Chase, Esq. Shortly after the meeting was called to order the Overton Hotel Club entered the hall, headed by the drum corps of the Sodality silver band.

Mr. Marshall, from the joint committee to report on re-organization, submitted the following report, which was on motion adopted:

For President, Marland L. Perkins; Vice Presidents, Wm. Chase, R. C. Church, H. D. Connell, Thomas Joyce, S. Fransiolo, Louis Schiffner, Ed Kiernan, John Dutlinger, James King and John W. Cochran; Corresponding Secretary, A. C. Barlow; Recording Secretary, J. V. Savage; Treasurer, George S. Robbins; Finance Committee, E. Marshall, Martin Reynolds, R. P. Walt, J. G. Stanton and H. G. Hampe; Executive Committee, J. W. Page, jr., George Stahl, Phil. J. Mallon, A. Berton and F. Karney.

The President was duly installed, and speeches were made by several parties.

A communication was also received from the President of the Central Club, making an assessment of twenty-five cents for each member of the Club.

On motion, a vote of thanks was tendered to the drum corps of the Sodality Silver Band, under the direction of Geo. J. Bedford, Esq., for their services in playing for the Club without charge.

A vote of thanks was also given to Messrs. Lunn & Mallon, E. G. Barnaby, George S. Robbins and A. C. Barlow, for services rendered in making transparency and putting up gas fixtures.

Previous to adjournment, several names were added to the roll of members, and the members present stepped up to the Treasurer's desk and made liberal contributions of money.

On motion, the meeting adjourned.

Gentlemen: For several years I was troubled more or less with Piles, for which complaint I was treated by the best physicians to no purpose; indeed, I gradually became worse, until at last I began to despair of relief from any source. While in this condition I was recommended to try your Buckeye Salve. Making up my mind to try it, I am now happy to say that it had the desired effect, as I am now well and hearty, for which I am indebted to your wonderful remedy. Yours, truly,
F. L. WARNER.

Upon receipt of $1 00 a bottle of this Salve will be mailed, free of postage.

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL.

OFFICE OF THE DAILY APPEAL,
MEMPHIS, August 12, 1868.

Currency is reported plentiful for all ordinary business purposes, and all first-class mercantile paper is taken by our banks at the usual rates. Exchange is quiet, with demand and supply about equal. Our discount houses buy at par to ¼c premium, selling at ¼@¼c premium.

Gold opened in New York at 146½ and closed at 145¾c. In this market there was very little coin offering. Brokers buy at 143@144c. Selling at 145@145½c.

The New York stock exchange quotations at noon to-day were as follows: Five-twenties, coupons of '81, 15½; do '62, 14½; do '64, 10½; do '65, 12½; do new issue, 9½; do '67, 9½; 10-40s, coupons, 9½. Old Tennessees bonds, 63½; new do, 63¾.

Stocks and bonds were very quiet to-day. We could learn of no sales, except a few small ones of city bonds at 50c. In our report of a sale yesterday of $40,000 in second mortgage bonds at 30c, it should have read Mississippi and Tennessee, instead of Mississippi Central. The latter are nominally worth 40c.

City Scrip is rather dull. There is no speculative demand, and brokers decline all offered at over 70c. The selling rate ranges from 72@75c, as to amount.

County Bonds are moderately active at 53c buying. Selling at 55c.

Police Scrip is very scarce. Dealers would pay 75c readily. Selling at 78@80c.

There are now outstanding $7,805,950 of seven-thirty bonds, the time for conversion of which into five-twenties has expired. They are now redeemable in currency.

MEMPHIS, August 12, 1868.

Editors Memphis Appeal:

I am glad to see you are holding up our city credit so well. Certain parties are at work to depreciate it for the good of their own pocket, as was the case last fall—a certain few worked the price down and then went in to buy all they could, leaving not a very large amount on the market. Now, for the benefit of scrip-holders, I would say, other parties East are trying the same dodge, and if they succeed they will clean the market out, and, when business is good, close out at a high figure. However, if it will help the city credit, I say go in, take it all out of the market, and our bonds will materially advance in New York, as soon as the election excitement is over.
MEMPHIAN.

A St. Petersburg paper of July 12th says the harvest will be very bad throughout Russia. In the Baltic provinces there is very little grain, and the reserves in the storehouses have been exhausted, and cannot be filled this year. In the Southern provinces there has been no rain since the 1st of May, and most of the crops are destroyed. A severe famine is in prospect. The prices of food are enormous, and in some localities the peasants have revolted.

The Printing Bureau of the Treasury Department is now actively engaged in printing the tax-paid stamps for distilled spirits, in accordance with the new revenue law. The stamps are about five inches square, with a handsome vignette, representing the reaping of grain, and are made of ten different denominations, from twenty to one hundred and thirty. Each denomination of stamps has nine coupons attached, so that these stamps will answer for any number of gauged gallons between these figures. They are bound in books, with stamps attached to each stamp, like bankers' checks, and being charged for their full value to the Collector, he gets credit for all unused coupons remaining in the book on its return, and thus the system operates as a check upon the Collector, preventing fraud either by collusion or otherwise. The method by which re-use, or the use a second time of the stamp, is prevented is new and ingenious. The stamp is pierced with a large hole in the center, which is covered by a thinner paper before printing. After it is printed and affixed to the barrel it cannot be soaked off and re-used, as the beer stamps have been, because the stamp will come off in two pieces, which, from their peculiar construction, cannot again be united on another barrel. The stamp is permanently defaced by any attempt to remove it. One peculiarity of the stamp is that it cannot be printed except by what is known as the dry process by hydrostatic power, so that the stamps cannot, in the present stage of the art, be printed anywhere but in the Treasury Department. This effectually prevents counterfeiting.

Cotton in Liverpool to-day was firm—Uplands, 9¾; Orleans, 10¼. At noon it was firmer and closed with sales of 12,000 bales; Uplands, 9¾@10d; Orleans, 10¼@10½.

The New York market at the opening was quiet but steady, and closed dull with quotations entirely nominal—Uplands, 29@29½; sales 300 bales.

There was no great degree of activity in the general markets to-day, though there was a fair inquiry for meats. Flour remains very quiet, and large sales are no more heard of. The largest buyers rarely exceed a drayload in their purchases. We neglected yesterday to notice the receipt of some very superior flour from Coldwater, Miss., which is, we think, equal to any yet received in this market, and will compare favorably with the choicest brands from St. Louis or other points North. This flour was consigned to Messrs. Newton Ford & Co., of Union street, who disposed of it readily, to bakers and others, at $11 75 per barrel. The Clarksville mills are also sending in the very best of family flour, at prices which defy competition from Northern mills, while our City mills, on Beal and Poplar streets, are doing a good business, and find it difficult to supply the local demand.

Pratt's Southern Made Cotton Gin

THIS GIN is regarded by planters who have used it, as the best for sample, picking the seed clean and light draught. Planters cultivating Cotton Lands are requested to examine the Eureka Gin at Carrington & Howell's, 288 Front street. It will pay for itself in ginning fifty bales. A. N. Gunnison, manufacturer of the Steel Comb Gin before the war can now a planter, gives the following certificate:

"MEMPHIS, TENN., January 31, 1868.

"I take pleasure in recommending to planters cultivating Cotton on bottom lands of the Mississippi, Arkansas, White and St. Francis rivers, the Eureka Gin, made by Daniel Pratt, of Alabama. This Gin separates the hulls, bolls, etc., from the seed Cotton, makes a good sample, and is superior to any other Gin for bottom lands. I have used one myself on a farm in Washington county, Miss., and it operates well and gives entire satisfaction in every respect. A. N. GUNNISON."

Orders for Gins, from 45 to 80 Saws and Gum Belting, at Factory Prices, addressed to the care of FARRINGTON & HOWELL, 288 Front street, Memphis, promptly filled. Presses and Gearing put up, and Saw Gins repaired by a skillful Gin wright. G. W. TRUEHART,

BUCKEYE SALVE

—FOR THE—

CURE OF EVERY FORM

—OF—

HEMORRHOIDS OR PILES

WHETHER OF LONG STANDING OR RECENT origin, internal or external, whether attended with Prolapsus, Hemorrhage or obstruction, and all by

External Application,

No internal adjuvants being required in any case, only to regulate the bowels, if constipated, or in Diarrhœa and Dysentery.

The PILES, while astonishingly prevalent in these various forms amongst all classes of both sexes, are, at the same time, the most distressing, frequently dangerous, and hitherto most difficult of cure.

Persons who suffer any length of time with the Piles generally try everything they can learn of purporting to cure the disease, yet realize no permanent advantage therefrom. They have been told professionally, perhaps, that there is no permanent cure for Piles, and consequently have despaired of any future cessation from pain and suffering.

To all such a SPECIFIC is offered for their relief. The

BUCKEYE SALVE

Is a strictly scientific combination of well known remedial agents, and the proprietors have no hesitation in saying the BUCKEYE SALVE is the

ONLY INFALLIBLE SPECIFIC

Ever discovered for that disease, and which cures by outward application only, and that in time to come, as in the past, it will stand the test of trial without a failure, to perform all the proprietors claim for it, if the directions are attended to.

A large number of gentlemen throughout the country of high character and influence have voluntarily attested to its efficacy in their own cases, not from hearsay, and whose certificates may be seen by reference to the publications.

The proprietors will forward to any address one bottle, postpaid, on receipt of the retail price, $1 00 per bottle.

A Liberal Discount to Druggists and Dealers in Medicine.

This Salve will keep in any climate for years

Chancery Sale

—OF THE—

OVERTON HOTEL.

PURSUANT to a decree of the Chancery Court of Memphis, entered on the 28th day of February, 1868, for the sum of $5,799 65, against J. M. Keating, R. E. Waddell and Coleman Boyd, we, the undersigned, Trustees and Commissioners of the said Court, will,

On the 10th Day of October Next,

Between the hours of 10 o'clock and 4, in front of the said Hotel, proceed to sell, to the highest bidder, on a credit of six and twelve months, the said Memphis Overton Hotel and the land on which the same stands, being the following lots, on the plan of the city of Memphis, to-wit: 127, 128, 129, 130, 131, 132, situate on the northwest corner of Main and Poplar streets in the city of Memphis, and embracing the block bounded by said Poplar and Main streets and Center alley, and an alley bounding said property on the north.

Redemption waived by the decree. The successful bidder will be required to execute notes for the purchase money with the most undoubted security before the sale is closed, and on failure, the sale will be continued, reopening on the last preceding bid.

The title is perfect, as we are advised, but we do not personally warrant the same.

Our Latest Improved

NEW SCALE PIANO-FORTE.

GROVESTEEN & CO.,

499 Broadway, N. Y.,

THESE instruments, after the most flattering and continuous trials from all parts of the country, who, at our solicitation, have tested them in the severest manner possible, have been pronounced THE FINEST SQUARE PIANOFORTE MADE IN THE WORLD.

It has always been our policy, during the thirteen years that we have manufactured Pianos, twelve thousand of which are now in use in the United States and Europe, to give the finest instrument at the lowest cost. Our superior facilities enable us to offer them from one to three hundred dollars less than any other First Class House.

The tone of these instruments are remarkable for their peculiar Sweetness and Great Brilliancy, never losing their quality when forced to their utmost capacity. The power, register retaining its positiveness, does not destroy the middle and upper registers by mingling with them in disagreeable confusion, the refined beauty of tone being equally delightful to the unpracticed ear and to the most cultivated ear.

They are finely new style of Case, finished in the most superb manner, with our full round corners front and back, heavily carved legs and lyre Perpetuine Base richly moulded, and each instrument is fully warranted for five years.

He will supply these superior Instruments to the trade, Wholesale and Retail, at the very Lowest Prices, made installed from him and Frame (cast in one solid plate). They excel all others in durability, superiority of tone, and elegance of external appearance.

All these Pianos have overstrung Scales, giving in connection with the patent iron rim and frame, Full, Round, Powerful and Sweet Mellow Tones. The Cases are elegant in appearance and easily handled.
